BIOGRAPHY

Stuart commenced his insurance career in a small loss adjusting practice and worked with Cunningham Lindsey (previously known as GAB Robins) for 18 years. During this time, Stuart had been based in Sydney and London with several overseas secondments. These assignments drew on Stuart's experience with international loss and the London market.

Stuart has also been involved in various losses spanning: food processing, manufacturing, industrial special risks, material damage and business interruption loss; reputational risk, public sector losses at various levels of government including state owned corporations.

Drawing on this experience, Stuart has been successful in fast tracking property reinstatement, managing stakeholders, and driving results. Stuart has presented on these experiences at many claims and industry conferences.

Stuart was appointed to Head of Property for McLarens in Australia in May of 2018.
