

MCLARENS AUSTRALIA INTRODUCES GEORGE BEJJANI - GENERAL MANAGER CONSTRUCTION AND NATURAL RESOURCES

Global loss adjuster, McLarens, is pleased to introduce Construction & Natural Resources General Manager, George Bejjani, to the Australia team. Based in Sydney, George will lead division strategy and growth in the region. He reports into Martyn Wicht – General Manager, Australia.

George commenced on 27 February 2017 and brings extensive regional experience in both the management of loss adjusting operation and handling of major losses in construction, engineering, and mining sectors. Additional niche specialties include associated BI and ALOP/DSU, machinery breakdown, and professional indemnity to name a few. George is a dual qualified engineer and chartered loss adjuster as well as an Australian and New Zealand Institute of Insurance and Finance (ANZIIF) Fellow and Australasian Institute of Chartered Loss Adjusters (ALCA) Associate Member.

Martyn Wicht, General Manager Australia commented: “We’re pleased to have someone of George’s calibre to lead our Construction and Natural Resources operation in Australia and to handle high-profile technical claims. His appointment complements our existing Australia team and will strengthen our service offering in the region.”

George Bejjani, General Manager – Construction & Natural Resources added: “I am pleased to lead the Division team in Australia and to develop and strengthen McLarens’ existing presence in the region’s construction and energy market.”
