

McLarens expands Australian Construction and Natural Resources Team with Specialist Recruitment

Melbourne: McLarens, the leading global loss adjusting firm specialising in complex and commercial claims, is pleased to announce the appointment of David Austin to the role of Specialist Adjuster in Australia. Based in Melbourne, he joins from Technical Assessing.

David is an experienced Loss Adjuster and degree qualified Building Surveyor with extensive experience in construction, engineering, machinery breakdown and associated business interruption claims. David will join the Construction and Natural Resources team based in the Melbourne office. David joins Guy Raynal in Melbourne, George Bejjani, Lebnan El-Hajj and Steven Contarino in Sydney and Stewart Kneale in Brisbane. His appointment compliments other recent hires in Sydney, Melbourne and Brisbane.

George Bejjani, General Manager Construction and Natural Resources, commented: “David is a great addition to the team. He is a highly respected technical loss adjuster and brings further strength to our team. We are very pleased to welcome him as we continue to build our network by hiring technically qualified and experienced professionals to service claims in the Construction and Natural Resources arena.”

David Austin added: “I am very pleased to be joining the McLarens team and look forward to being part of what is proving to be a successful, focused and client centric operation.”

David is an Affiliate through the Australian and New Zealand Institute of Insurance and Finance (ANZIIF) and associated with the Australian Institute of Chartered Loss Adjusters (AICLA).
