

McLarens Aviation Joins National Aircraft Finance Association

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla.— National Aircraft Finance Association (NAFA) is pleased to announce that McLarens Aviation has recently joined its professional network of aviation lenders. NAFA members will have access to McLarens Aviation's comprehensive Risk and Asset Management Services, which includes due diligence and asset monitoring, throughout the financing cycle.

"NAFA members proudly finance, support or enable the financing of general and business aviation aircraft throughout the world and we're happy to add McLarens Aviation to our association," said Ford von Weise, President of NAFA.

McLarens Aviation is a leading provider of aviation claims, risk & asset management services to the global aviation industry. Managing in excess of 3,500 assignments each year, McLarens Aviation offer independent technical expertise and advice to aircraft financiers, lessors, institutional investors, insurers, operators and end users.

The international business has a team of over 80 in-house aviation specialists, operating across 33 offices, in 22 countries across the globe and its dedicated Risk & Asset Management Services division has supported aircraft financiers for several decades, with industry leading technical due diligence and asset monitoring. In 2017 alone, McLarens Aviation inspected over 600 aircraft globally for the finance and leasing community.

McLarens Aviation also offers extensive corporate and general aviation experience, with its team averaging more than 20 years of technical asset management experience. The company aims to exceed the highest industry standards, inspiring innovative thinking and new developments to stay ahead in an ever-changing market.

Ben Dean, Director of Risk & Asset Management at McLarens Aviation, comments: "In the current dynamic economic environment, it is important for lenders to have access to a dependable technical resource, either at the time-critical pre-finance stage or during the loan term. With this in mind, we are proud to join NAFA and provide its members with access to our market leading technical consultancy, in order to support their business growth whilst mitigating against associated asset risk".

Much like NAFA, McLarens Aviation strives to offer the highest degree of credibility and assurance to its clients. McLarens Aviation and NAFA are dedicated to pioneering solutions in the aviation industry, fostering a culture of knowledge and integrity.
