BIOGRAPHY

Jeff began his insurance career with GAB Robins in 1990. During his career, he has handled multiple Product Recall losses for the standalone Product Recall insurance market involving Food & Beverage (both co-packers and manufacturers), Automotive, Components Parts, and Consumer Goods. In addition, he has handled Product Liability claims involving Food & Beverage, Pharmaceutical, Automotive Components, and Consumer Goods. These losses involve both the manufacturer of the end product, as well as, components and ingredients incorporated into finished goods.
