BIOGRAPHY

Andrew has been employed in the insurance industry since late 2007 and had begun his career at a national insurance services provider handling third party liability claims, accident benefits, auto bodily injury and moving into examining municipal property and liability, commercial property and commercial general liability claims throughout Canada.

In 2015, Andrew moved to the field and worked out of a flagship office handling all lines. During this time, he gained experience in construction claims and large losses. In January of 2019, Andrew joined MGB claims.

Andrew is involved with the Canadian Independent Adjusters' Association (CIAA) and the Insurance Institute of Canada.
