BIOGRAPHY

Glenn joined McLarens as Managing Director for McLarens Ireland in 2021, leading the Republic of Ireland business. Glenn joined us from Sedgwick Ireland where he was Head of Casualty Division Ireland for almost three years, managing the department, leading on large and difficult losses, and defining the strategic direction of the specialism. Previous to this, Glenn head various other roles in the same group of companies over a 13 year period, including Head of Liability Division, Head of Operations Adjusting Services and Property Division Operations Manager.

Glenn commenced his insurance career with General Accident Fire and Life Assurance Company in Cork in 1988. In 2000, he commenced Casualty Adjusting with Garwyn rising to the position of Branch Manager in Cork by 2004. In 2006, he co-founded Lynch Goggin Associates, a niche Casualty Adjusting firm operating nationwide. This company was purchased by OSG (subsequently becoming Sedgwick) in 2009.

Glenn has been a member of the Chartered Insurance Institute for most of his Career and a Council member of the Insurance Institute of Cork for over a decade. He held the Education Officer's position for a number of years and is also a member of the national Council for the Insurance Institute of Ireland.
