BIOGRAPHY

Chris entered the loss adjusting industry in the UK during the late 1990's and has specialised in liability adjusting since 2001. He progressed to the position of Complex Loss Specialist within a global adjusting firm, where he specialised in investigating and handling large and complex injury, fatality, stress, property liability and products liability & recall claims, before relocating to Australia in 2013. Since being in Australia, Chris has developed a following amongst a range of insurer, TPA, and law firm clients through the provision of quality, robust and proportionate investigations and claims handling services. Chris was awarded Loss Adjuster of the Year at the 2017 AICLA (Vic) Awards. Formerly a Director of an Australian owned National Adjusting firm and following a short period away from the industry, spent working for Australia's largest TPA during which he gained an in-depth understanding of what a client needs from a liability adjuster, Chris joined the team at McLarens in January 2024.

Chris is involved in the following associations: The Society of Claims Technicians, Certificate of Insurance Practice, Society of Technicians in Insurance, Fellow of The Society of Claims Technicians.
