BIOGRAPHY

Tara began her career in the insurance industry in 1996 with an international Insurer, where she developed a dedication to providing exemplary customer service and a proven track record in conducting in-depth investigations and analysis. Quickly, Tara's focused on handling complex losses with proven expertise in Policy analysis, claims verification, dispute resolution and fraud detection.

She developed a love of mentoring new staff members and presenting Lunch and Learns and trained to teach CIP Courses. She has achieved completing her University Degree, CIP Designation, Catastrophic Training for Deployment and Independent License for All Lines.

Throughout the years, Tara has gained experience in various facets of insurance claims, including Automobile Bodily Injury, Physical Damage, Accident Benefits, Non-Owned/Temporary Substitute Auto, Products Liability, Commercial General Liability and various types of E&O, including large, complex losses for both Personal and Commercial Insurance Lines. Tara has a passion for claims handling with a drive for communication, reporting, customer service and effective problem solving.
