BIOGRAPHY

Janene is a property, liability and financial loss specialist who started in the industry in 1996. Throughout her career, Janene has managed claims across a wide range of industries including food products, dairy, meat, seafood, horticulture, wine and beverage, and chemical processing.

She has adjusted claims all across New Zealand as well as claims originating from New Zealand products or services which have been supplied to countries throughout Australasia, Asia, the Middle East and Europe. She provides Litigation Support and advice on a range of matters such as Business Interruption, Fidelity, Stock Reconciliation, Product Recall and Contamination.

In addition to processing and manufacturing losses, Janene has adjusted major property and financial claims for a range of other industries throughout New Zealand, Australia, and the Pacific Islands such as pulp and paper, energy, hospitality and tourism, healthcare, retail and professional services.

During the Canterbury earthquakes, Janene was the lead on more than 150 claims whilst managing a team of financial loss specialists on over 300 complex claims due to incurring damage from multiple events.

Janene is studying towards a Bachelor of Commerce, majoring in Commercial Law and Cost Accounting and holds a Diploma of Financial Services and is an ANZIIF (Senior Assoc) CIP.
