Forensic Accounting – UK & Ireland

Forensic Accounting Expertise

Our in-house and independent forensic accountants provide the dual benefit of in-depth financial analysis with proficient policy interpretation. Our technical expertise delivers a quality solution to all claims stakeholders.

Policy interpretation goes hand-in-hand with quantum. Our team are Chartered Accountants with expert financial modelling skills who are able to deal with large and complex data sets. In addition to this, our Chartered Loss Adjuster (CILA) qualifications ensure valuable policy knowledge. Our response is agile and personalised to each scenario to mitigate conflict and achieve positive outcomes.

Team Approach

Adopting a team approach, our dual qualified forensic accountants working alongside the Lead Adjuster and other McLarens specialists can proactively shorten the claims cycle on day one. With prompt and accurate reserving from the outset, to detailed financial modelling, we are able to precisely quantify claims. Specialist market expertise includes retail, manufacturing, hospitality, leisure, power, agriculture, cyber, construction and engineering.

Our Clients

- Insurers
- Reinsurers
- Brokers
- Lawyers
- Corporates
- Captives

Our Approach

To provide innovative mitigation strategies that will reduce both the duration of claim and its financial impact, we combine:

1. Detailed financial analysis and data interrogation
2. Specialist market sector knowledge
3. Ability to align quantum with policy wording interpretation

// I have no hesitation in recommending the McLarens Forensic Accountancy team to clients. Without fail, the team always take the time to understand an individual business which in turn leads to positive customer outcomes.

– Group Claims Director, Insurance Broker

// Your work was priceless in assisting to challenge the claim presented. My thanks.

– Dispute Lawyer

// McLarens and their Forensic Accounting team are part of our small panel of property adjusters handling our Major & Complex Losses above £250K and have been for several years. They work closely with our internal handlers to find swift, pragmatic solutions to assist our policyholders throughout the claims process.
