BIOGRAPHY

Daniel entered the insurance industry in 2011 as an apprentice at GAB Robins where he quickly progressed through internal roles before becoming a Loss Adjuster.

Following several years in London he moved to Manchester and joined a large international adjusting firm where he handled both domestic and commercial claims, whilst developing his technical ability.

In 2020 he moved to a niche Adjusting firm where he handled large and complex domestic claims, before joining McLarens in 2023.

Daniel has responded to many weather-related events across the UK as part of the surge response.
