BIOGRAPHY

Natasha is a seasoned insurance professional with comprehensive industry experience. She began her career in 1996 as a claims handler at Royal Insurance, she has progressively advanced through various specialized roles, to include personal injury and property damage claims across Commercial Employer, Public, and Product Liability sectors. Throughout her career, Natasha has developed extensive expertise in complex claims investigation, thorough coverage analysis, and strategic settlement negotiations.

Her deep understanding of subrogation principles and third-party recovery processes, combined with her proven ability to identify recovery opportunities and negotiate favorable outcomes, enables her to deliver results while building strong relationships with clients, legal teams, and industry partners.
