BIOGRAPHY

Since joining McLarens, Lisa has adopted a role in Third-Party Administration, handling varied residential and commercial property claims. Lisa has demonstrated expertise in coverage assessment, providing comprehensive reports to both domestic and international carriers and efficiently managing payments on their behalf. Her role as General Adjuster also includes handling diverse fine art and specie claims, underscoring her capability and confidence in navigating intricate challenges within the industry.

Lisa began her career in the insurance industry in 1991 as an executive assistant at a construction risk management firm focused on insurance and surety bond programs for contractors. In 1994, Lisa transitioned to an administrative role at an independent adjusting firm, where she gained valuable experience in claims handling and worked closely with clients and Insureds. Her dedication to professional development led her to obtain a New York Fire Adjusters License in 2016, and she joined McLarens that same year.
