BIOGRAPHY

Chris entered the Insurance industry in 2010 as a graduate of the University of Portsmouth and gained experience initially at a supplier in domestic claims, before moving to a role at Allianz Insurance PLC where he progressed into a counter fraud role dealing with third party injury and property liability losses.

Following a stint with a Broker he took time away from the profession by moving to a national property manager where he received extensive training and technical experience in buildings, particularly fire safety, whilst leading a team of 27. Chris returned to Insurance as a Loss Adjuster in 2020 where he led a regional domestic team.

Since then, he has developed into a general adjuster specializing in Private Clients, Fine Art & Specie, with a particular interest in high end jewelry and watches. His portfolio to date has included Subsidence, Commercial Property including Business Interruption, Domestic HNW, and liability.

Key cases include a £2.5m Fire at a Grade II* listed property, Theft of a £250k artefact from a museum, Assault & Theft at a celebrity Antiquer, and various VIP / public figures.
