BIOGRAPHY

Graham began his career in claims adjusting in 2019 with Progressive Insurance, where he built a strong foundation in claims handling and developed a thorough understanding of the adjustment process. He later joined Sedgwick as a Property Adjuster, where he earned a reputation for delivering exceptional customer service, maintaining strong attention to detail, and effectively managing a wide range of claims with professionalism and efficiency.

In his current role as a National General Adjuster with McLarens, Graham leverages his experience and technical expertise to handle complex losses while providing clear communication and dependable service to clients and stakeholders. He is committed to upholding high industry standards and delivering fair, accurate, and timely claim resolutions.
