BIOGRAPHY

Mark started in the loss adjusting industry in 1991 having completed a Building Surveying degree, with a small private practice specialising in construction related losses, including performance bond claims. At this time, Mark also spent time on site as a surveyor for a sister management contracting company.

In 1996, Mark joined Cigna Insurance Company, again specialising in construction related claims management and moved back into the loss adjusting industry in 1998 when he joined Crawford THG as a construction adjuster.

Mark was part of a team who moved from Crawford THG in 2001 to Miller Fisher and following the demise of Miller Fisher, was part of the team involved in the management buyout, forming Miller International. Mark subsequently became a board director of Miller International, who were subsequently purchased by Buckley Scott in 2011.

In 2011, Mark joined GAB Robins as a Senior Construction Adjuster before moving back to Buckley Scott in 2012 who were subsequently purchased by Crawford & Company.

In 2017, Mark was part of a team who moved to Cunningham Lindsey International where he was an Associate Director handling a number of prestigious accounts. In 2018, Cunningham International were purchased by Sedgwick.

Mark joined McLarens in 2020 as an Executive Adjuster and has progressed to Senior Executive Adjuster.

Mark has extensive experience in handling Contractors All Risks, construction liability (PL, EL and Non-neg) and performance bond claims on major construction and infrastructure projects and annual contractor accounts.
