BIOGRAPHY

Craig Jory is a commercial property claims specialist with over a decade of experience managing complex and high-value losses across a wide range of industries. Since beginning his insurance career in 2014, Craig has handled significant claims involving office buildings, hotels, warehouses, healthcare facilities, and public infrastructure.

He brings deep expertise in commercial construction, business interruption, and large-scale property damage, including wildfire, hurricane, water, and fire losses. Craig is particularly experienced in builders' risk and large habitational programs. Known for his responsiveness, attention to detail, and strategic approach to claims resolution, Craig is a trusted partner to carriers, brokers, and risk managers navigating large-loss commercial property events.
