BIOGRAPHY

Ciara graduated from University College Cork in 2024 with a BComm in Commerce. She began her career with Enterprise Mobility, gaining valuable experience in customer engagement and sales within a dynamic, client-focused environment.

In April 2025, Ciara joined McLarens as a Claims Administrator, where she now works as part of the Casualty team, supporting the efficient handling and progression of claims. She has also achieved her APA (Accredited Product Adviser) qualification, strengthening her technical knowledge and commitment to professional development within the insurance industry.
