BIOGRAPHY

Katherine began her career in the industry in 2022 as a desktop adjuster, dealing with caravan and motorhome claims. She then joined Sedgwick, where she handled domestic property claims.

In 2025, she joined McLarens as a Commercial Property Adjuster and quickly established a strong track record of consistent performance and successful outcomes. She handled a wide range of commercial property losses and repeatedly demonstrated value to insurers through her technical knowledge and strong diplomatic capabilities.

In May 2026, Katherine progressed into an Executive Manager role within the London Commercial Property team.
