BIOGRAPHY

Thomas Roselli is a National General Adjuster in Hawaii. Mr. Roselli has over 25 years of experience in the insurance industry specifically in property claims as an adjuster, vendor program manager, mediator, and supervisor. He has lived in Hawaii over 20 years and has extensive knowledge and experience in the Hawaii Market. Prior to moving to Hawaii, he worked as a catastrophe adjuster working multiple hurricanes in Florida and Alabama as well as various hail storms throughout the Midwest. His responsibilities have included damage assessment scope development, cost estimating, cost analysis and negotiations of settlement for residential, commercial, business, healthcare, hospitality, military, and industrial projects. His projects have included some of the most complex and largest property claims in Hawaii history. Mr. Roselli has been vetted as an expert witness and assisted with multiple litigation files and worked as an appraiser.
