EXPERIENCE

With extensive experience in construction and insurance claims, Matt brings deep knowledge and expertise to every claim. He began his professional journey in construction, serving as a Superintendent before advancing to Project Manager for several highly-respected construction firms in the greater San Francisco Bay area. This hands-on experience provided a deep understanding of construction practices, project management, and risk assessment.

Building on that foundation, Matt transitioned into insurance as a General Adjuster, where his construction expertise proved invaluable in evaluating complex property and builders risk claims. Through years of dedication and professional growth, he has advanced to the role of Senior Executive General Adjuster. Matt manages a diverse portfolio of accounts including retirement investment trusts, healthcare organizations, real estate portfolios, builders risk projects, public transit agencies, and private clients. He provides practical, strategic solutions tailored to each client's unique needs.

In addition to managing complex claims, he regularly consults with clients on risk management strategies, claims intake processes, and claims history analysis, helping organizations strengthen their risk profiles and improve operational outcomes. He is committed to delivering trusted guidance, exceptional service, and results-driven solutions built on decades of experience.
