BIOGRAPHY

Enrique began his adjusting career in California with Sedgwick in 2019, working under the mentorship of Senior Executive General Adjusters. In 2020, he joined McLarens with the goal of developing his expertise as a multi-line adjuster and account manager.

Today, Enrique focuses on commercial property and specializes in hospitality, Builder's Risk, residential, and school programs. He is committed to continuous professional growth and takes pride in the rapid advancement of his career through the diverse experiences and knowledge he has gained as an adjuster.

Now based in Arizona, Enrique continues to support clients throughout the Western United States.
